

Fruit Notes

This Week

Top fruit

- Don't rush into planting
- Clean bulk bins
- Managing costs
- Assess apple and pear mite levels
- Remove mummified plums

Soft fruit

- Three SOLAs for metamitron
- Thoughts before fleecing
- SOLA for Masai
- Aphids on cane fruit
- Can you use that pesticide
- Clean up your crop
- Pruning primocane raspberries

Contents

| | |
|-------------------|---|
| Top fruit general | 3 |
| Apples | 4 |
| Pears | 4 |
| Stone fruit | 5 |
| Strawberries | 5 |
| Cane fruit | 6 |

ADAS FRUIT NOTES © ADAS 2010

EDITORS: Robert Irving & Chris Nicholson, ADAS Boxworth, Cambs, CB23 4NN
(Tel. 01954 268214 Fax. 01954 267659)

PESTICIDES: Always read the product labels, use pesticides safely.

PRODUCTS: Mention of products in the ADAS Fruit Notes does not constitute an endorsement, nor does failure to mention products imply criticism.

RECOMMENDATIONS: Information in the ADAS Fruit Notes is intended to provide guidance, but cannot constitute a recommendation. You are strongly advised to contact your local ADAS consultant when more detailed information is needed.